SAVANNAH, GA – Officials of the Club Car Championship at The Landings Golf & Athletic Club announced today the details surrounding a new exemption process that will award one spot in the tournament field of competitors to the winner of The Invitational at The Ford, an event hosted annually at The Ford Field & River Club – Ford Plantation Course in Richmond Hill, Georgia.

The Invitational at The Ford is a two-day, 54-hole men's collegiate event that will feature eight invited teams. The inaugural tournament will be played April 14-15, 2025, and determine one of the four exemptions into the 2026 Club Car Championship.

In additional news, officials of the Club Car Championship at The Landings Golf & Athletic Club announced today the return of the tournament's salute to service initiatives, including complimentary admission to all United States Armed Forces (Active Duty, National Guard, Reserve, Retirees, and Veterans) and First Responders attending the eighth annual Korn Ferry Tour event at The Landings Golf & Athletic Club's Deer Creek Course in Savannah.

The tournament's special Military and First Responder ticket is available Thursday – Sunday, April 3-6, and extends to family members and dependents of all approved Active Duty, National Guard, Military Reserve Service Members, Military Retirees, Military Veterans and First Responders.

Please note that a valid Military/First Responder ID must be provided along with the official tournament Military and First Responder ticket.

The Nation's Armed Forces take center stage on Saturday during the tournament's Military Appreciation Day presented by Savannah Logistics Group and Vereens, featuring a full day of pageantry honoring the country's heroes. Fans will be treated to an array of military equipment and aircraft throughout the tournament property. Galleries around the 18th green will witness personnel tending the flag, as well as a special military representative announcing the Korn Ferry Tour field of players as they approach the green. The day of celebration will conclude with a military paratrooper landing on the driving range displaying an American flag, followed by a closing ceremony and the third annual Club Car Concert on the Range featuring multi-platinum pop-rock band Spin Doctors and singer-songwriter Ryan Cabrera.

The Military Outpost presented by Thompson & Thompson Heating & Plumbing is located off Hole No. 14 green and is open to all ticketed Military and First Responders and their families from Thursday, April 3 to Sunday, April 6. The Outpost includes complimentary food and beverages.

For tickets and additional information visit: clubcarchampionshipattlc.com/tickets. Fans 17 and under receive free general admission with a ticketed adult.

The Club Car Championship at The Landings Golf & Athletic Club also announced today the return of the tournament's Kid Correspondent Program, in partnership with the 100 Black Men of Savannah. The 2025 official correspondent of the Championship, Armand Marshall, will experience a full week of activities, including the Opening Ceremony, access to post-round Korn Ferry Tour player interviews, a shadowing experience with tournament officials and more.

Armand is in his freshman year at Savannah Early College High School. He loves science and science and is interested in pursuing a career as an astrophysicist.

The 2025 Club Car Championship at The Landings Golf & Athletic Club is March 31-April 6, in Savannah, GA, at The Landings Golf & Athletic Club's acclaimed Deer Creek Course.
