The tournament is open to the public from Thursday, March 26 to Sunday, March 29 and ticket prices for the official Korn Ferry Tour event start at $10. Kids 17 and under receive free general admission with a ticketed adult.

In addition to daily and weekly general admission tickets, the tournament's hospitality offerings are also available and include The Landings Company Eagle's Nest, Schooner Cove Suites presented by RTG and the 518 Pass.

Tournament officials also announced today the details surrounding the tournament's annual concert event. The 2026 Electric Avenue at the Club Car Championship concert event will feature America's favorite 80s tribute band on Saturday, March 28, following the third round of tournament competition, on the Deer Creek driving range.

"The Saturday evening concert has become a fan-favorite event that brings incredible energy to the tournament," said Brit Donahue, tournament director. "We're excited to continue the tradition of blending golf and music at the Club Car Championship with Electric Avenue bringing us back in time for a night of 80s dance hits."

Electric Avenue is a premier 1980s tribute band that has performed more than 1,100 high-energy shows across the U.S. and internationally. Known for their unmatched authenticity, the band uses vintage synthesizers and meticulous arrangements to recreate the sound, feel, and spirit of the decade. Their performances don't just play the hits—they transport audiences back to the moments when those songs first became part of their lives.

Tournament tickets with access to the Club Car Concert on the Range start at $20 and all Saturday ticket sales benefit Folds of Honor, a nonprofit organization that provides educational scholarships to the spouses and children of fallen or disabled military and first responders.

About Electric Avenue

What began as a one-time party performance has evolved into Electric Avenue's decade-long run as one of the most respected 1980s tribute acts in the country, with more than 1,100 performances worldwide. The band is celebrated for its obsessive attention to detail, drawing from an extensive collection of vintage synthesizers and rare gear to faithfully reproduce the era's iconic sound. That commitment to authenticity once led Warner Music to mistake a live Electric Avenue recording for an original master—a testament to how closely the band mirrors the artists who defined the decade. Beyond headlining venues nationwide, Electric Avenue has shared stages with music and entertainment icons including Pat Benatar, members of Toto and Little River Band, and has performed for events featuring Kid Rock, Pitbull, and the cast of The Walking Dead. Collectively, the musicians have contributed to the sale of over 15 million records worldwide, bringing both technical excellence and genuine passion to every performance.
